

November 21 2007

As Architects we are naturally not fond of accounting, but our accountants Tavana & Co. have shown us how it can be fun, especially when they drew their charts to show us a complicated reorganization that can save us taxes. They are experts in their field and highly professional service providers. We recommend them to any professional who is frustrated with accounting.

Plaston Architect Limited
Mohammad Mohebbi OAA
President